

FUIL WINES

TECH NOTES

1. 2023 Viognier (J+K Vineyard, Ballard Canyon)

90 pts. Wine Enthusiast

The second vintage of our wildly successful J&K Vineyard Viognier. Noted of honeysuckle, white peach, and tangerine balance out with enough minerality to make your meal unforgettable.

ABV: 13.3%

AVA: Ballard Canyon

Vineyards: Biodynamic

Native Fermentation

100% Whole Cluster Press

PH: 3.67

TA: 6.3

Malolactic Fermentation: No

Bottled: Unfiltered, FSO2 @ 40ppm

Vegan

Blend: 100% Viognier

2. 2023 Solas Nua (Santa Barbara County)

Solas Nua: Gaelic for “New Light”

Fresh strawberries, raspberries, and orange peel, reminiscent of sangria. Bright and

ABV: 12.5%

AVA: Santa Barbara County

Vineyards: Organic/Biodynamic

Native Fermentation

100% Whole Cluster

PH: 3.63

TA: 6.2

Bottled: Unfiltered, FSO2 @ 35ppm

Vegan

Malolactic Fermentation: Partial

Blend: 70% Mourvèdre, 25% Viognier, 5% Syrah

3. 2021 Syrah (Ballard Canyon)

91 pts. Wine Enthusiast

Light ruby in color, with notes of dark cherry, cocoa, and herbs de Provence, this Syrah is a feminine style reminiscent of the Northern Rhone. Elegant.

ABV: 13.3%

AVA: Ballard Canyon

Vineyards: Organic

Native Fermentation

100% Whole Cluster

PH: 3.91

TA: 5.2

Bottled: Unfiltered, FSO2 @ 35ppm

Vegan

Malolactic Fermentation: Yes

Blend: 95% Syrah, 3% Viognier, 2% Mourvèdre

FUIL WINES TECH NOTES

4. 2020 Tábla Wines Rua (Sta. Rita Hills)

92 pts. Wine Enthusiast

Rua: Gaelic for red hair, as in: “That ginger winemaker has red hair.”

Ruby red color with cream, baked black plums, hazelnuts, cinnamon and cherry compote. This is a complex wine that nonetheless is incredibly friendly on the approach.

ABV: 15%

AVA: Sta. Rita Hills

Vineyards: Conventional

Malolactic Fermentation: Yes

Blend: 100% Grenache

PH: 3.66

TA: 4.4

Bottled: Unfiltered, FSO2 @ 30ppm

Vegan